

In-Development Projects

The listing below is of potential projects being considered for commencement within a year subject to funding approval. Generally, they include those for which preliminary investigations are being made to ascertain the technical feasibility and cost of execution the projects. The list can also include potential projects for which funding from external sources in the form of grants and/or low interest, long term loans are being sought and without which, would result in the projects being delayed to future years.

Supporting Documents

In-Development Projects 2023 174.43 KB

In-Development Projects 2022 130.51 KB